Smoke Test Checklist for a generic mobile app

Epic	Test Scenario	Expected Result	Actual Result	Pass/Fail	Notes/ Screenshots
Installation & Launch	App installs successfully on iOS [version] device	App icon appears on home screen
	App installs successfully on Android [version] device	App icon appears on home screen
	App launches without crashing	App opens to the main screen
	Splash screen displays correctly	Splash screen is centered, visually appealing, and displays for an appropriate duration
User Interface	Main screen loads without errors	All elements load correctly, no error messages
	Navigation between screens is smooth	Tapping icons moves to the correct screen without delay
	UI elements are properly aligned and visible	No overlapping or misaligned elements
	Text is clear and readable	Font size and color are appropriate, no truncation
Functionality	User registration/login works as expected	User can create an account and log in successfully
	Main features are accessible and usable	Core features (e.g., browsing, searching, purchasing) work as expected
Performance	App responds to user input without significant lag	Taps and swipes are processed promptly
	Scrolling is smooth and fluid	No glitches or inconsistent movements
Data and Content	Initial content loads correctly	Content displays without errors or missing information
	User-generated content is saved, retrieved, and displayed correctly	Content persists as required and can be accessed later
Network	App functions correctly in online and offline modes (if applicable)	App handles network changes as expected
Device Integration	Camera access and image capture work as expected	Photos can be taken and uploaded successfully
	Location services function correctly and accurately	App can determine user's location and display relevant content
Log Out	Logging out works as expected	Upon logging out, user is displayed the home screen			